

Rally Your RESILIENCE

with JIM DAVIDSON

Reach Your Summits in Business and Life!

Partial List of Clients

- Ameriprise Financial Services
- Association Management Company Institute
- ConAgra
- Colorado Society of Association Executives
- Gilead Sciences
- Meeting Professionals International
- OppenheimerFunds
- SunTrust

When you encounter difficulties in business and life, will you hesitate and retreat, or will you bounce back and continue upward?

Jim Davidson can help you and your organization rally resilience and persevere through the climb ahead.

Resilience Expert, Author, Speaker and Expedition Leader

Jim blends lessons from all these experiences and shares compelling wisdom about being resilient in business and life. His keynotes and workshops teach your team how to:

- Engage with vigor
- Execute with determination
- Rally the resilience to continue upward

Jim embodies resilience. During his 29 years of climbs and expedition leadership he has:

- Rescued himself from an 80-foot deep glacial crevasse
- Climbed high peaks around the globe, including the world's sixth highest (26,906 feet)
- Led expedition teams and remote mountain rescues

By combining his hard-won insights with more than 25 years of corporate and entrepreneurial success, Jim uncovers real-world wisdom that helps you reach your summits in business and life.

Jim's remarkable story of resilience and survival has been featured on the TV show "I Shouldn't Be Alive" (Animal Planet, 2011) and in an adventure memoir, The Ledge: An Adventure Story of Friendship and Survival on Mount Rainier by Jim Davidson & Kevin Vaughan (Ballantine Books/Random House, July 26, 2011).

Phone: 970-224-4608 • jim@speakingofadventure.com

Jim Davidson's compelling lessons inspire audiences to triumph over adversity.

19,000 feet on Mt. McKinley (Denali)

Rave Reviews

"The post-event surveys are in and, as I expected, you got top marks from everyone. The only complaints were that I didn't schedule you for a longer session, earlier in the workshop. But that just means we'll have to bring you back!"

- Martha Morrison, CMP, Vice President of Meetings and Trade Shows, Self Storage Association

"The many times I have heard Jim speak I am always amazed at how he can completely captivate his audience. He gets his listeners to apply lessons from his story to their own life situations. I have recommended Jim to numerous groups and clients and all have been extremely pleased."

- Tammy Page, Director of National Sales, The BROADMOOR

"Several long term committee members commented that this was the best retreat that they've attended. This is a hard group to please, so we are thrilled that your presentation was so well received."

- Jolene McNeil, CMP, Meeting Manager, Industrial Supply Association

Speaking of Adventure
2731 Dixon Creek Lane
Fort Collins, Colorado 80526
970-224-4608 • (fax) 866-264-8319
www.speakingofadventure.com jim@speakingofadventure.com

Keynote Presentations & Workshops

Rally Your Resilience - Reach Your Summits in Business and Life

Trapped alone 80 feet down inside a dark crevasse, with no rescuers coming. Jim Davidson barely survived after a snowbridge suddenly collapsed beneath his feet, dropping Jim and his partner deep inside a glacier. How does someone face tremendous challenge? How can you overcome adversity?

From this inspirational presentation, you'll learn about:

- Persevering through overwhelming difficulties
- Rallying resilience to overcome adversity
- Confronting setbacks as you reach for your summits

Resilient Leadership & Engaged Teamwork

High-altitude expeditions and rescues face rapidly changing conditions, limited resources and uncertain team dynamics - just like today's fast-paced business world. By examining mountain rescues led by Jim and his teammates, this unique, interactive presentation covers:

- Developing resilient leadership skills
- Promoting engaged teamwork
- Adapting to change

Surviving Storms

In life, business and mountaineering, there are storms. Mountain storms bring sudden winds and blizzards. Life's storms can be economic struggles or a personal crisis. After climbing high peaks around the world, Jim knows what it takes to endure such storms and he reveals how to:

- Adjust your plans, attitudes and actions
- Engage problems through drive, direction, and discipline
- Endure stormy times and resume ascending once good conditions return

Expedition Execution - For Reaching BIG Goals

Struggling and succeeding on BIG expeditions requires focused goal setting, self-discipline and commitment. From his many expeditions, Jim distills techniques tested from Alaska to Nepal for reaching BIG goals in life and in business. His adventure stories, vivid photographs, and exhilarating videos bring to life practical methods to:

- Create plans for reaching your BIG goals
- Implement successful execution strategies
- Reach your BIG goal, no matter how high